

Human Rights Monitoring in Ecuador

Project Title	Human Rights Monitoring in Ecuador
Project Summary	Monitor human rights in Ecuador by conducting periodic research for four congressionally-mandated reports: Human Rights, International Religious Freedom, Trafficking in Persons, and Child Labor reports.
Country	Ecuador
Country/Region of Focus	Ecuador

Project Description

Each year, the U.S. Mission in Ecuador writes four congressionally-mandated reports on the human rights situation in Ecuador. The Human Rights, International Religious Freedom, Trafficking in Persons, and the Child Labor reports play a significant role in influencing the U.S.-Ecuador bilateral cooperation on these issues. The intern would conduct periodic Internet-based research and report to the Embassy's political section on these issues. The political section would also ask the intern to help edit and fact-check the reports.

Required Skills or Interests

- Skill(s)
- Political Analysis
- Research
- Writing
- Analytical writing
- Data analysis
- Editing and proofreading

Additional Information

None

Language Requirements

Language	Speaking Proficiency	Reading Proficiency	Importance
Spanish	Minimum professional proficiency	Full professional proficiency	Required